Wokingham

Citizens Advice Wokingham is a local charity supporting hundreds of people every month to find a way forward with their problems. Any donations are greatly appreciated by the team.

[REDACTED] summary:

- Cost is between £25k and £30k. The figure for the bus in the picture is £25k (the one we want)
- Citizens Advice will put £5k towards it
- Jake was thinking of the following WBC departments contributing An idea of some quick measurables - it would be a volunteer led service:
 - Children's services (measurables: Visiting schools [number], Helping 50 families)
 - Adult's services (measurables: gaps from PHM work, reaching older people in communities?)

- Public Health - or mixed with Adult Services (measurables: Visit top 5 areas of deprivation weekly increasing client access by 5%)
- Communities (measurables: Visit all 17 town and parish councils over 12 months, advocacy work on housing and debts)
- Business and place (measurables: advice surgeries in business parks for smaller businesses)

seeking financial support from above departments and coming through to T&PC's and will also go to United Charities.

Sandwell's briefing on their bus, along with some feedback and their press release.
