21/54 Purpose

Cllr. Grimes gave an overview of the purpose of the additional meeting which was to shortlist names for the new community centre.

21/55 Shortlisting

The Criteria was identified as follows:

1. The name should demonstrate the gravitas of being the council's home and being suitable for parish council and possible future of town council.
2. It should represent the community of new and existing residents
3. It should stand test of time
4. It should reflect its role for the whole community
5. Consideration should be given to avoid common names such as 'Community Centre'

21/56 56.1 It was PROPOSED that the following shortlist of names be put out to residents on which to vote:

- Link on the Green
- Hub on the Green
- The Peg
- Shining Fields Centre
- The Venue
- School Green Centre

Proposed: Cllr. Brown Seconded Cllr. Clarke Unanimously Agreed

56.2 Cllr. Boyer NOTED that polls that were being created in conjunction with Cratus to share with residents via various channels and enable them to vote on the name.

56.3 It was requested that wording be included to ensure that it was understood that the outcome of the vote would be the final decision.

56.4 Cllr. Boyer confirmed that he would take advice from Cratus on how to avoid multiple voting and voting from people living outside of the parish.

The meeting closed at 21:20
