Summer Holidays Competition results!

This year we decided to run two summer holidays competitions throughout August, Young Photographer of the Year and Miniature Garden.

Thank you to all those that supported the workshops and competitions, we would specifically like to thank;

Alan, Professional photographer, who gave up his own time. Donations of materials came from local sources Laurels Plant Centre, Shinfield Garden Centre, and Places Leisure gave out FREE family swim tickets.

We had 5 entries, all unique - so we decided all the young people were winners and issued them all with a £15 gift card.

Pictured: Shinfield Parish Councils, Cllr Zoran Matic and Benjamin aged 13, who received his prize for his framed tennis shot at Shinfield Tennis Club – well done!

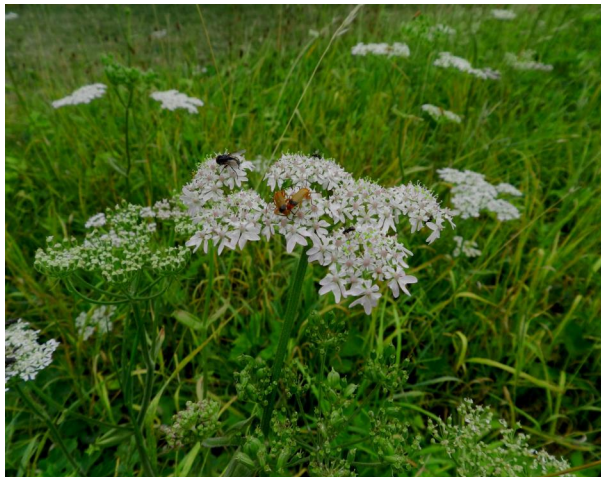

All the photography entries

Wow 17 entries in total!

SPC hosted its second children's and young adults' competition at the end of August. Participants were tasked with designing a miniature garden, encouraging creativity and imagination. Two workshops were conducted beforehand, providing children with access to materials, plants, and inspiration to begin their projects. Materials were generously donated by two local garden centres: Laurels Plane Centre and Shinfield Garden Centre.

In line with our aim to engage more with our community and organisations that support it, we were delighted to have the support of Anna Cakebread from Places for Leisure. Anna, a keen gardener, offered to help work with the participants, sharing her gardening knowledge and enthusiasm for gardening. Thank you, Anna, it was wonderful to have you with us.

The results were brilliant! 17 entries in total! We had a fantastic array of gardens entered into the competition from 'Candy Land' to 'The Rainbow Garden' and 'Feather Frontier' to 'Camping out by the Pool'.

What should we do with Ryeish Green Pavilion? take the short survey

Ryeish Green Pavilion: History and Developments

Ryeish Green Pavilion is a community sports building located off Ryeish Lane near Spencers Wood in the parish of Shinfield. It was purpose-built in the 1980's as a football club house and changing facility for local sports on the Ryeish Green playing fields, and also used as an alternative for parish council meetings up until 1997. The original aim was to give local clubs a dedicated base – essentially a modest clubhouse by the pitches – to host matches and training sessions. The pavilion's primary use was for grassroots football, though a cricket wicket was also laid nearby (a non-turf cricket pitch, now disused) indicating intentions for multi-sport use.

A turning point in the pavilion's story came when Ryeish Green School was closed by Wokingham Borough Council in 2010 (the school was later replaced by Oakbank Free School in 2012). The school's closure raised questions about the future of the extensive playing fields in the area. Shinfield Parish Council, which already oversaw the adjacent pavilion and recreation ground, entered discussions to expand community access. In May 2011 the parish stated it had been negotiating with Wokingham Borough Council (WBC) to take over management of the former school playing fields in order to “redevelop and manage the facilities for community use” . The parish sought to integrate the school’s pitches with its own, creating a larger sports hub for residents. These talks were delayed due to major housing development plans and the free school proposal, but the intent was clear: local authorities wanted to ensure the Ryeish Green sports grounds remained in public/community use after the school shut.

Wokingham Borough Council undertook a multi-million-pound redevelopment of the sports amenities at Ryeish Green in 2017–2018. The project transformed the defunct school sports complex into a modern “Ryeish Green Sports Hub.” the original Ryeish Green Pavilion building was left intact but somewhat side-lined by this redevelopment. The pavilion sits at the edge of the sports ground and by 2018 it was physically fenced off from the new pitches and facilities . The new Sports Hub complex provided its own changing rooms and meeting spaces, meaning teams could use the central hub instead of the old pavilion for most purposes. In essence, from 2018 onward the pavilion became an under-used, standalone structure, as the focal point for sports shifted to the hub.

Ownership/management of Ryeish Green Pavilion rests with Shinfield Parish Council, even as the wider sports site is owned by the borough, the parish council has been responsible for the pavilion’s upkeep. By the early 2020s, Ryeish Green Pavilion had become underutilized and in need of renovation and Shinfield Parish Council debated what to do with the aging facility and as of early 2024, Shinfield Parish was awaiting feedback on planning constraints.

In summary, Ryeish Green Pavilion has gone from a vital local sports amenity to a surplus asset over its lifespan. Built to foster village football decades ago, it served its purpose as a changing-room hub for youth and adult teams and even supported additional sports. It fell under parish stewardship, and through the 2010s was part of a broader plan to create a sports hub. The pavilion itself, however, was eclipsed by major borough-led upgrades in 2018 that provided superior facilities. As of 2025, all known history of Ryeish Green Pavilion points toward transition: the building awaits either a new owner or repurposing. The pavilion’s story reflects local government investment in sports infrastructure and the changing needs of a growing community, from its construction and heyday in local football to the present where it stands at a crossroads of redevelopment or disposal.

Stop Animation Workshops

These were the first Stop Animation Workshops held in the school holidays at the School Green Centre.

In collaboration with Liz Kerry, Art Space in St Nicholas, Earley.

The FREE workshops were a pilot aimed at older children years 6, 7, 8, 9 and 6 spaces available to book. Although the first session only had three families and the second two, both were highly productive sessions where different youngsters with different levels of understanding about the stop motion process created their own stories and made very original creative animation videos. They also attempted new techniques such as using rigs, sound, storytelling structures, changing points of view, and balancing visual effects on a screen.

Shinfield Parish Council will be exploring with Liz, how we can incorporate this creative provision into a regular event at the School Green Centre, for all age groups.

Purpose and Vision

The Parish Council is committed to making the parish SHINE (Safer, Healthier, Interesting, Neighbourhoods & Engaging everyone) and this competition is aimed at making the parish a more interesting place to live.

Cllr Raj Tatla, Chair of Shinfield Parish Council, said:

"We're proud to support a project that not only enhances our public spaces but also celebrates the creativity and diversity of Shinfield."

Cllr Raj Tatla

Cllr Zoran Matic

"This is an exciting milestone for Shinfield," declared Cllr Matic, Chair of the Arts, Culture & Events Committee. "Beyond our substantial investment in new community buildings and sports facilities, this initiative is about nurturing a vibrant cultural landscape that benefits every resident. Our first Art Exhibition in February 2025 attracted lots of people, and now we look forward to even greater community involvement as we shape a cultural legacy together."

Bruce Winton, Chief Executive and Clerk to Shinfield Parish Council, commented: "We are incredibly grateful to Arts4Wokingham led by Charlotte Haitham-Taylor for their support throughout this project. Their expertise and enthusiasm have been instrumental in getting us to this point, and we're delighted to be working alongside them to deliver a legacy piece for Shinfield."

Bruce Winton

How residents will be involved

Artists have been given a broad remit to develop concepts that note the history of the parish, and its shortlist of artists will be selected by November 2025, and the Council will be inviting public input to help choose the final design ensuring the finished artwork truly resonates with the residents of Shinfield parish. This engagement will be in advance of a final selection in March 2026.

While hoping for as much local participation as possible the final choice will be the proposal which is deemed to be the best fit for the site. With this project, Shinfield is fostering creativity, encouraging connection, and building a brighter, art-filled future for all who call the parish home.

Where will the sculpture be located?

Developers will begin work later in 2025 to create a new public plaza to the north of School Green Centre and the winning sculpture will sit on the eastern edge of the plaza adjacent to the Centre.

For additional information, please contact:

Bruce Winton, Chief Executive and Clerk to Shinfield Parish Council on clerk@shinfieldparish.gov.uk or 0118 988 8220 OR visit www.shinfieldparishart.org.uk

To start

3rd October Inter Alia at 7.30pm

Oscar-nominated Rosamund Pike (Gone Girl) is Jessica in #InterAlia, the powerful new play from the creative team behind Prima Facie.

Jessica Parks is a smart Crown Court Judge at the top of her career. Behind the robe, she is a karaoke fiend, loving wife and a supportive parent. When an event threatens to throw her life completely off balance, can she hold her family upright? Writer Suzie Miller and director Justin Martin reunite following their global phenomenon Prima Facie, with this searing examination of modern motherhood and masculinity.

24th October Mrs Warren's Profession at 7.30pm

Five-time Olivier Award winner Imelda Staunton and her daughter Bessie Carter unite on stage for the first time in #MrsWarrensProfession.

Five-time Olivier Award winner Imelda Staunton (The Crown) joins forces with her real-life daughter Bessie Carter (Bridgerton) for the very first time, playing mother and daughter in Bernard Shaw's incendiary moral classic. Vivie Warren is a woman ahead of her time. Her mother, however, is a product of that old patriarchal order. Exploiting it has earned Mrs. Warren a fortune – but at what cost? Filmed live from the West End, this new production reunites Staunton with director Dominic Cooke (Follies, Good), exploring the clash between morality and independence, traditions and progress.

Shinfield Volunteer Group Footpath Report August 2025

Welcome to our August report. With autumn taking hold we expect foliage issues to die down. Apart from wandering around at random snipping brambles as we go there is not much to report.

Reading Footpath 13

We heard through the grapevine that some of our readers were getting intrigued about what we are going to say about this footpath that now forms a popular circular walk in Three Mile Cross. We thought we had done quite a good job for walkers given the tools we had when we resurrected this lost footpath. Admittedly there were some tree stumps that we could not remove so we either covered them or sloped up to them. In a chance conversation I was talking to the contractor who looks after the rights of way footpaths for Reading Borough Council. The conversation got round to this footpath and he said it is a great idea but some small stumps to the side played havoc with his cutting machine. On investigation we found there were indeed some nasty little stumps that did not affect walkers but would clearly be at odds with the machine. Some of these appeared as the path bed we laid settled down.

I mentioned this to one of the volunteers in the SVG rights of way team and the Loddon Valley Ramblers and between us we used a stump grinder to remove them. We proceeded and not only cut the side stumps out but also the ones we buried and sloped up to. I have attached a photo of just one before and after. The feedback has been good and the landowner expressed his delight at the stumps being removed. The obvious pay back is the contractor will be able to do a more effective surface cut.

Shinfield Footpath 16.

Reading University carried out some surface work on the last section of this footpath where it exits on to Hyde End Lane. We are grateful to them as it is a vast improvement.

If you like gardening and feel you could help as a SVG volunteer, maybe cutting a few brambles back we would like to hear from you. Our contact details are below.
